Ahmedabad Airport Enhances Connectivity to Monsoon Destinations, offering Passengers Access to Enchanting Landscapes and Picturesque Sceneries.

Ahmedabad, August 11, 2023: Make the most of the upcoming vacations and festive holidays by planning a trip to some of the amazing monsoon destinations that are well connected with Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport (SVPIA). Travellers from Ahmedabad now have easy access to the picturesque places as mentioned below and can enjoy the enchanting beauty of nature during the rainy season.

Lonavala and Mahabaleshwar

Lonavala is a romantic and magical destination during the monsoons, offering breathtaking views from Tiger's Point and the Tungarli Lake in full overflow. With 1 Air India and 4 Indigo flights available, travellers can conveniently reach Lonavala through Pune airport. Mahabaleshwar, known for its hilly landscapes and mist-covered peaks, can also be combined with a trip to Lonavala, providing adventure and trekking opportunities for enthusiasts.

Darjeeling, Siliguri, and Chalsa

With 1 Indigo flight from Ahmedabad airport, reaching Darjeeling, Siliguri, and Chalsa has become more accessible. Explore the lush-green valley, embark on the ageless toy train ride in Darjeeling, and immerse yourself in the tea gardens of Siliguri with the help of the strong flight network from Ahmedabad airport. There are daily through flights available to the nearest airport, Bagdogra.

Munnar and Alleppey

Munnar is the ideal destination for those seeking a calming monsoon getaway. With its silvery mist, rolling hills, and tea gardens, Munnar offers a serene atmosphere away from chaotic city life. Alleppey, also known as Alappuzha, is another favourite destination to visit after the monsoon. Both these breathtakingly beautiful destinations are well connected by direct flights to Cochin from Ahmedabad.

Goa

Goa is a dream destination for many, and even during the monsoon, it offers picturesque sceneries amidst constant drizzles. Explore the Dudhsagar Falls, marvel at the Basilica of Bom Jesus, and soak in the charm of Aguada Fort. Amdavadis can fly to Mopa International Airport with 1 Indigo and 2 Akasa Air flights.

Auli

Auli, widely known as a skiing destination during the snow season, transforms into one of the best spots to explore in North India in August. With moderate rainfall and pleasant temperatures for sightseeing, Auli offers a different charm during the rainy season. Amdavadis can reach Auli through Jolly Grant Airport with a direct Indigo flight.

Jaipur and further to Ranikhet

Jaipur is well connected with Ahmedabad by 3 Indigo flights. It allows passengers to explore Pink City and the capital of Rajasthan. Passengers interested in travelling further to Ranikhet and other destinations in Uttarakhand can take a flight through Jaipur to Pantnagar by Indigo.

Dehradun

Places in and around Dehradun can be reached by direct flight from Ahmedabad. A daily flight by Indigo can help passengers plan their travel to Dehradun, Mussoorie, Rishikesh or Haridwar.

Make the most of the enhanced connectivity to these monsoon destinations and create lasting memories as you immerse yourself in the beauty of nature.

Ahmedabad Airport is dedicated to providing convenient and accessible travel options for citizens to explore these enchanting landscapes and picturesque sceneries during the monsoon season. Ahmedabad is well connected to 33 domestic destinations by 07 airlines.
