

Thiruvananthapuram International Airport

Press Note

One month long Onam celebrations at TIAL

Thiruvananthapuram: The month-long Grand Onam celebrations have begun at Thiruvananthapuram international airport.

The celebrations started with music concert by playback singer Nitin Raj.

For travelers and other visitors, programs including art performances are arranged every day till September 08. The curated market of handicrafts of Kerala will start today at the international terminal. Special decor were also installed inside the airport as part of the Onam celebrations.

Those who shop at the shops including Duty Free, retail and F&B outlets at the airport will get prizes worth Rs 25 lakhs including SUV car, motorbike and gold coins as a prize through lucky draw.