

MANGALURU INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

Press Release 01-23_24/April 2023

03-04-2023

MIA opens multitude destinations for exciting summer travel

Mangaluru: Planning a summer vacation and probing diverse travel options? Mangaluru International Airport is poised to provide one with the perfect air connectivity options to all parts of India. Connected to all major domestic aviation hubs across India in vantage locations across India, MIA gives the discerning travelers, much needed options to choose a variety of destinations for self and family.

If a trip to Guwahati, Shillong, Tsomgo Lake and a plethora of tourist circuits in the North-East is on your mind, then fly down to Guwahati via Mumbai or Bengaluru. Guwahati opens a wide range of tourist destinations which can be further accessed by road transport for last mile connectivity. Mangaluru operates daily flights to Bengaluru and Mumbai which in turn opens onward seamless connection to Guwahati.

If a desert adventure in something to your liking, then Jaipur will be the ideal place to branch out from. Mangaluru provides daily connectivity to this capital city of Rajasthan via Mumbai and Bengaluru. Jaipur opens the wonders of culture and heritage highlighted by the palaces that abound there. Jantar Mantar, Hawa Mahal, Mubarak Mahal, Friends of the Museum Bazaar are some of the places which one can explore at leisure.

Bagdogra in West Bengal is the among the up-hill destination for one to explore via daily flight connectivity from Bengaluru. Nestled among nature and preserves several traditions and customs, Bagdogra provides travelers the opportunity to visit important tourist destinations such as Darjeeling, Chalsa, Siliguri onward to Guwahati, the famed Kaziranga National Park and to other destinations in the North-East.

Likewise, daily through flights to Kolkata via Bengaluru again opens tourist destinations in West Bengal. Daily flights to Delhi which is an important part of Golden triangle tourist circuit of Jaipur-Delhi-Agra gives one the chance to explore hill stations such as Shimla, Dalhousie, Nainital, Mussoorie. Non-stop flight, four times a week to Pune opens tourist places of Kamshet, Panchgani, Mahabaleshwar, Khandala and Jejuri to people.

Through flight via Pune to Ranchi, the state capital of Jharkhand provides one the opportunity to explore the scenic Patratu Valley near Ranchi, Jagannath Mandir, a replica of the famed Jagannath Temple in Puri, Jonha/Dassam and Hudru Falls in the vicinity, the Ranchi War Cemetery, Rock Garden, Birsa Zoological Park, and other destinations in and around this city. So, your wait ends here. Pack your bags, get, set, and go!

ENDS