Previously priced between Rs 55,000 and Rs 70,000, three-day packages from Hyderabad, are now available for Rs 45,000 or even lower

World Holidays in Hyderabad, highlighted a shift in demand to Lakshadweep, receiving over 80 calls daily for the archipelago off the Kerala coast earlier to reporting no enquiries for Maldives in the past three days. Abdul Majeed Fahim, chairman of the Travel Agents Federation of India (AP and Telangana chapter), said no cancellations have taken place yet. "This is because people book their tickets in advance and opting out at the last minute would result in significant cancellation fees, providing only minimal refund," he said. Moez Meghani, owner of Sky Brokerz travel agency, observed a departure from the usual trend as the Maldives experiences a reduction in enquiries during long weekends, including the upcoming Sankranti festival. While Maldives has no fixed season, it has always been a favourite "quick getaway" among locals. "Typically, when it's a long weekend, bookings for Maldives are common until the last day due to its reasonable cost and visa-on-arrival facility."
